

BREAKS FETTERS TO CAPTURE THIEF

Theatre Watchman Gets Policeman While Robber Tries to Drill Safe.

$3,000 IN STRONG BOX

Florida Visitor Victim of Robbery After Befriending a Stranger.

George White, a watchman, was attacked early yesterday morning in the lobby of Loew's Theatre, 132 West 116th street, bound to a rear orchestra seat and left there while his assailant entered the manager's office, and it was alleged, started to drill into the door of a safe containing $3,000.

Breaking his bonds, White escaped from the theatre and returned with patrolmen Lehmann and Broderick. The police reached the door of the manager's office, and at a signal White threw on all the theatre lights. A man dressed out of the office and was arrested. He had a revolver but no cartridges. Later in Washington Heights Court John Persico, said to be known also as Samuel Robinson of 186 West 123d street, was charged with the attempted robbery and held without bail for examination Monday.

Ellsworth Vrooman, a real estate dealer of St. Petersburg, Fla., was touched by a hardluck story told by John Accordi of 112 Humboldt street, Brooklyn, who accosted him on the way to the Elks Club, 108 West Forty-third street, Friday night, and he invited Accordi to be his guest. Accordi wanted money to get to relatives in Philadelphia, and Mr. Vrooman, who was returning South, offered to take him there.
During the night, it was alleged in West Side court yesterday, Accordi slipped out with two rings and a wallet containing $200. He was stopped by the night clerk and arrested. The wallet was said to have been recovered. Ac-cordi was held in $2,000 bail for examination on a charge of grand larceny.

While a dinner party was under way at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron E.
Eldred in Nassau road, Great Neck, Friday night a case containing jewelry valued at $4,000 was stolen from Mrs.
Eldred's dressing table. There were no clues as to how the thief gained entrance to the house. Fingerprints have been taken from the dressing table.

ENVOY FROM GERMANY FAILS TO APPEAR

Diligent Search for Baron von Thermann Without Result.

Baron Edmund von Thermann of Berlin, reported in press despatches as bound for the United States to assume the duties of charge d'affaires of the German Embassy following the resumption of diplomatic relations with that country, did not arrive on the Holland-America liner Ryndam, which docked yesterday in Hoboken.

That was made certain after a search in which Capt. Wilhelm Krol, purser, wireless operator and other officers of the ship, as well as reporters and photographers, took part. His name was not on the passenger list. All German passengers on board denied that they were he travelling incognito. One baron was discovered in the search, Baron van Amerongen, a young-titled Hollander, who was bound for the middle West.

BOWERY SINGER HELD IN DE SIMONE SHOOTING

Police Say Accused Man
Court Victim.

Guilelmo Milano, a singer in a Bowery theatre, living at 465 East 147th street, The Bronx, was arraigned yesterday in Jefferson Market Court by detectives who have been investigating the shooting of Mrs. Rose De Simone, the night of November 1 in front of her home at 47 Morton street. Five shots were fired, and Mrs. De Simone was wounded, and is still in a critical condition in St. Vincent's Hospital.

STEFANSON IS SUED BY LECTURE MANAGER

Lee Keedick Asks $15,000 for Tour Never Made.

Lee Keedick, manager of lecture and concert tours, began suit yesterday in the Supreme Court against Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, alleging violation of contract and demanding $15,000 damages.

Keedick alleges that he and Stefansson entered into a contract in 1918 by which the explorer was to lecture under his management for two years and accept 50 per cent. of the profit at each lecture for his compensation. The lecture tour was never made, but Keedick figures as an expert, that if it had been his profits would have amounted to the $15,000 for which he sues.

BARNARD TO ADVANCE ITS BEST STUDENTS

Thirteen Selected for Class Under New System.

Barnard College is about to adopt one of the better features of the English University system by separating the best students from the poorest, in order that the former might not be retarded by the less agile mind of the latter.
Thirteen young women have been selected for the class that will be of an experimental nature. These young women have shown more than ordinary ability in their class rooms.

This new system, according to Dean Gildersleeve, will release the selected girls from much of the routine of college and will give them opportunity and incentive to expand their already ample powers. Instead of taking examinations every half year, this group will engage, at the end of its senior year, in a comprehensive examination covering the whole curriculum.

Miss Gildersleeve announced that the following students had been selected for the work in honors: Botany, Nelly Jacob, Gall, Switzerland, Economics, Marie S. Bloomfield, 43 Post avenue, New York, English, Anna E. Lincoln, Chicago; Marguerite Loud, 194 East Forty-third street, New York; Margaret Trusler, Indianapolis, English and history, Helen M. Matzke, 1240 Webster avenue, New York.

French, Phyllis Haig, Hailville, Neb.; Valentina A. Janicki, 412 Fourth avenue, Brooklyn; Lela P. Stroug, 181 Elm street, New York. Physics, Katherine H. Shaw, Charlestown, Mass. Psychology, Georgina J. Hoffman, 15 Hamilton place, New York.

ESSAY CONTEST OFFERS CASH OR SCHOLARSHIPS

Columbia Subject Is 'Athletics in Education.'

Columbia University is offering a choice of cash or scholarship prizes to amplify youths for essays on "The Place of Athletics in Education." The cash prizes will be $100, $50 and $25. If the winner of the first prize elects to devote it to education he may take a first year scholarship in Columbia. Whether he wins a second year scholarship and so on depends on himself.

The essays must be under 1,500 words.
The contest will be open to boys in schools having alumni or former students in Columbia College during this academic year. And lest it look too easy, the stipulation is made that the English that cloaks the ideas set forth on the topic will receive the closest scrutiny and judgment.

MATTEAWAN TO DEPORT 4 INSANE TO GERMANY

Inmate Clothier Loses Action for Freedom.

Officials of the Matteawan State Asylum for Criminal Insane arranged yesterday to deport to Germany four prisoners who have been held in America on account of the war. One of them, Henry Marks, inmate clothier of the asylum, has been there nineteen years.
Steps to deport the four were hurried by a habeas corpus suit begun by Marks before Justice Morschauer in Supreme Court. In a decision announced yesterday Marks's petition is denied and the writ dismissed. The asylum officials were advised in court to send Marks back to Germany, where he has relatives.

Dr. Raymond Kiehl, superintendent of the asylum, said Marks, who is 53, was committed for shooting a man in Manhattan. Marks had a delusion the man, whom he did not know, was talking about him.
